Exercise -IV

⇒ Answer the following questions:

1. Describe the incident when Todd borrowed a dollar from the speaker.
  - ❖ Speaker accompanied Todd when he was leaving for Bermuda. Todd had no change to pay his taxi fare. So Todd borrowed a dollar from the speaker.
2. What did Todd's note from Bermuda contain?
  - ❖ Todd's note from Bermuda mentioned that the temperature was up to nearly hundred. Speaker was expecting a dollar but he was disappointed.
3. What was the speaker's intention in suggesting that they take a taxi to the club?
  - ❖ Speaker had an intention to remind Todd of the borrowed dollar. So he suggested Todd that they would take a taxi to the club.
4. Why does the speaker want to forget that he had lent a dollar to Todd?
  - ❖ After meeting Todd several times speaker realized that Todd had completely forgotten about the borrowed dollar. So speaker thought instead of bothering himself he should forget that he had lent a dollar to Todd.
5. Why doesn't the speaker want to remember what he might owe others?
  - ❖ There are two reasons. 1). There are very few men who owned him a dollar and who had forgotten it. 2). Even the thought that speaker owes others a dollar bothers a lot. Because of these reasons the speaker wants to remember what he might owe others.
6. Why did speaker ask Todd about the currency used in Bermuda?
  - ❖ Todd had borrowed a dollar from speaker but had not returned it to him even after coming back from Bermuda. When Todd and speaker met to spend evening together they started talking about Bermuda. Speaker then took a chance and asked Todd about currency used in Bermuda. He also asked comparing value of it with American dollar. But neither 'currency' nor 'dollar' reminded Todd of borrowed dollar. Thus speaker asked Todd about the currency used in Bermuda just to get back the dollar.
